CF Hurricane Preparations

Step 1

The National Hurricane Center announces a hurricane watch.

Step 2

The CF president, Plant Operations and Public Safety begin to monitor weather conditions.

Step 3

If the tricounty area is in the projected storm path, Plant Operations and Public Safety begin making preparations for the safety and security of CF employees, students and college property.

Step 4

The president decides if and when to close the college and determines what additional preparations need to be made. The closing may affect the entire college, or just specific campuses and sites.

Step 5

Official notice that the college will close, and at what time it will close, will be announced to employees by broadcast and email, and to students by the local media and on the website. RAVE Alerts will be issued to individuals with information on file.

Step 6

College officials and essential personnel (employees who are needed to help with hurricane preparations) will monitor the storm, secure the college and assist with the evacuation of students and employees.

Step 7

Once the affected college campuses and sites are secure, only specific essential personnel will remain at the sites. When college sites are closed, timely evacuation from the sites is mandatory.

Let's work together to keep our college as safe as possible in the event of a hurricane.
