Three-time Mid-Florida Conference Champions
2012 FCSAA State Champions
2011, 2013 FCSAA runner-ups
NJCAA Top 10 national finish 2011-2013

Flavia Siqueira enters her fourth season as the head women's volleyball coach at the College of Central Florida. Siqueira has guided the Lady Patriots since the program's inception in 2011. Since then, she has led CF to three consecutive Mid-Florida Conference titles, a FCSAA State Championship and two runner-up finishes. She has also coached the Lady Patriots to a NJCAA Top 10 finish each season. Siqueira comes to CF after three seasons at Northwest College, a National Junior College Athletic Association member school in Powell, Wyo. She holds a master's degree in college teaching and a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Mary in Bismarck, N.D.

A native of Brazil, Siqueira signed in 2000 with Western Nebraska Community College, leading the team to consecutive top-four national finishes and earning All-Region and Academic All-American honors. She then transferred to the University of Mary, where she earned All-American honors and led the program to its first national top-10 ranking in school history.

Siqueira began her coaching career at the College of the Southwest in Hobbs, N.M., before taking the position at Northwest College. She led the Trappers to a 90-38 record in her tenure with the program, including a regional championship and an NJCAA national tournament berth in the fall of 2009. The same year, Siqueira earned a Thirty Under 30 Award from the American Volleyball Coaches Association, one of two coaches from two-year programs to earn the distinction.
