How did you hear about the Community School of the Arts?

Disclaimer

Parents/guardians are responsible for the safety of their children at all times while they are on College of Central Florida premises. College of Central Florida Community School of the Arts is not a licensed child care facility, and any child age 12 or under taking lessons or classes at the College of Central Florida School of the Arts is required to have a parent/guardian present on the premises at all times during lesson or class time in case of emergency.

Publicity Policy

Photographs of students engaged in instruction, rehearsal, or performance activities at the College of Central Florida Community School of the Arts may be used in publications, local newspapers, magazines, electronic media, and related publicity materials. Completion of registration constitutes consent and permission by the student and student's parent(s)/guardian(s) to use the student's name and/or image for any advertising, publicity, marketing and packaging.

The Dassance Fine Arts Center is located on the Ocala Campus of the College of Central Florida. Private lessons are held in the teaching studios on the first floor. There is a spacious and comfortable lobby where parents or caregivers may wait during the lesson.

All of the instructors are on faculty with the College of Central Florida's Visual and Performing Arts Department. They are credentialed at the standards recommended by CF's accrediting agency, the Southern Association for Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. These instructors specialize in teaching the skills needed to pursue a higher education degree in the arts.
