For a better understanding of academic integrity and ethical writing practices, please see The Office of Research Integrity’s Guide to Ethical Writing or the CF Library’s Academic Integrity guide.

CF Student Assistance Program

The CF Student Assistance Program (SAP) is a confidential resource for assisting students who may have personal problems which could affect their school, work, or home lives. SAP provides early intervention and professional assessment and counseling to best meet the needs of the student. Services are free to all active CF students. The SAP is managed by BAY CARE LIFE MANAGEMENT, a health management organization. A student may call a toll free helpline during regular business hours Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. For crisis situations after hours, on weekends, or holidays a student may call the same number and the therapist on duty will be paged and will promptly respond to the call. For services a student may call the following toll free number: 1-800-878-5470. CF also has a counseling office where students may receive free confidential professional counseling by State licensed clinicians. - Early Support Program (ESP): The College of Central Florida is committed to helping you succeed and achieve your academic, personal and career goals. One of the ways we can accomplish this goal with you is through an Early Support Program. Our philosophy, based on extensive research and practice, is that when students are connected early to resources and support systems on campus they are more likely to stay in classes, perform better in those classes, and complete their path more quickly. Therefore, you may be contacted by your First Year Success Specialist, program Advisor and/or other resources on our campus if there is a time during the semester I feel it would be beneficial to your continued success. I am always your first point of contact for any concerns that affect your success or with course content, so I encourage you to come to me to discuss those issues. Also, be assured that I will first communicate any concerns I have with you and will then connect you with the other areas on our campus to help develop a network of support for you.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Tests: (25%) There will be two major tests during the semester. Tests will consist of multiple choice, identification and essay format questions. Test questions will come from in-class lectures and from the textbook.

Class Participation/Bulletin Board Requirement: (45%). Success in this class is tied in great measure to your reading of the textbook in preparation for exams. Students are also expected to use the course Discussion Board to make comments about the assigned readings. Each week, questions related to course readings and lectures will be posted to the discussion board in CANVAS. You are required to respond to one question with a response of at least 125 words. Only messages posted during the week in question will be accepted for credit. Postings should focus on your own thoughts and opinions, versus being a simple retelling of the facts involved. Your responses should be based on your reading in the textbook---you don't need to access other sources for this assignment.

Film Reviews: (20%) Watch two separate films dealing with various historical topics we will cover this semester, and write a 750 word paper analyzing each film. See the module in CANVAS for more specifics on this assignment. Paper # 1 is due by October 4 and paper # 2 is due by November 8. Points will be deducted for papers turned in after these deadlines. Each paper is worth 10% of your overall grade for the course.

Attendance/Participation: (10%) Regular attendance is expected, as well as participation in class discussions. Students may miss two class sessions with no penalty and no questions asked. Each absence after the second will result in a 5 point deduction off your final grade for the course (up to 10 points maximum). Please note that this policy does not distinguish between "excused" and "unexcused" absences. An absence is an absence! Students who are late or leave class early will also be counted for partial absences as deemed necessary by the instructor. If you have commitments for athletics, student activities, military service, family responsibilities, etc. that you are already aware of, please plan to use these available absences for those days you may miss class.

PRIORITY REGISTRATION DATES

- WHEN SHOULD I REGISTER FOR THE NEXT SEMESTER?
 - Registration is conducted by a process called Priority Registration. Those students who have earned hours may register ahead of those who have not earned hours or who have less earned hours.
 - This process provides opportunities for those students who are closer to graduation to enroll in classes before students with fewer numbers of earned credit hours. This ensures that students have an opportunity to register for the courses they need to be able to graduate on time before the courses are filled.
 - The enrollment process for the next semester begins EARLY in the current semester. It is important that you know your priority registration date and have your course choices planned out prior to that date.
 - Priority registration is also available to those students made eligible through the Disability Services office. If you are unsure of what courses to enroll in or how to use the online registration system, it is highly recommended that you schedule an appointment with your academic advisor EARLY in the current semester.
 - It is important that you register for the upcoming semester courses as soon as your Priority Registration date opens in order to get the CORRECT courses & scheduled times that you will need for your degree and major.
