Course Description

This course examines current environmental concerns and their management. It integrates and correlates the features of the natural environment with human activities. Topics include basic ecology, population growth and world hunger, energy resources, environmental regulations and water, air and noise pollution. This course will help students gain an understanding of, and solutions to, environmental problems.

Textbook

Enger and Smith, Environmental Science: A Study of Interrelationships, 15th Ed., 2018, McGraw Hill. ISBN 9781259916816 (earlier editions are acceptable).

Prerequisite

This course is open to students who have no prep needs in reading or have satisfied their prep need by taking REA0002C or REA0017.

Quizzes

Each chapter in the textbook will have a quiz on Canvas. Quiz dates are listed on Canvas and all quizzes will be completed online through Canvas. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped. Students have two attempts with each quiz, with the highest grade entered in the gradebook. All quizzes must be completed on the assigned day and time. NO EXCEPTIONS!

Writing Assignments

There will be six writing assignments during the semester. Instructions, due dates, and grading rubrics are posted on Canvas. Late writing assignment will NOT be accepted for any reason.

Discussion Forums

There are a total of three required discussion questions throughout the course. Discussion forums contribute to a deeper understanding of key concepts and allow you to interact with your classmates and the instructor. Initial posts are due by Thursday of each week with student replies by Saturday of each week. To earn full credit, you will need to post a response, respond to the original posts of at least two other students, and then contribute to an ongoing discussion. Late discussion posts are not accepted! Discussion forum guidelines include:

- Respect each other's ideas, feelings, and experience. Expect your classmates to have different opinions.
- Use proper writing style. Correct spelling and sentence structure are expected just as if you were writing a regular paper. Use spell check and grammar check before you submit.
- When responding to a classmate, address them by name.
- Do not use postings such as "I agree," "I don't know either," or "ditto." They do not add to the discussion, take up space on the Discussions, and will not be counted.

Book Review:

There will be one critical review of a selected book (fiction or non-fiction). Instructions, due date, and grading rubric are posted on Canvas. A late book review will NOT be accepted for any reason.

Grading Criteria

Overall grades will be calculated as follows:

- Quizzes-60%
- Writing Assignments-25%

- Book Review-10%
- Discussion Forums-5%

Grading Scale

Grades will NOT be rounded up. For example, an 89.9 is a B+ and an 86.8 is a B. There is no extra credit for the course!

- A: 100-90.0%
- B+: 89.9-87.0
- B: 86.9-80.0
- C+: 79.9-77.0
- C: 76.9-70.0
- D: 69.9-60.0
- F: below 60.0

Disputing Your Grade

If you feel that an error was made in grading an assignment, test, etc., you have one week from the time the grade was posted electronically on Canvas to dispute your grade. After one week, all grades are final and no changes will be made!

Withdraw

If you want to withdraw from this class, you must fill out the necessary forms and have them signed by the appropriate parties. If you just "stop coming to class" after the posted drop date, you may receive the grade of "F."

- Add/Drop Period: August 15-17
- Drop Only: August 19
- Last day to withdraw with a "W": October 25

The college reserves the right to evaluate individual cases of non-attendance. Please see the College's withdrawal procedures. Students should be alerted to the fact that:

1. withdrawals do not count in the CF G.P.A, but may not be viewed favorably at the university level or for financial aid;
2. a withdrawal counts as an attempt under the forgiveness/withdrawal policy and the course repeat policy;
3. there are increased costs to take the course on the third attempt.
4. there may be a reason a withdrawal request may be denied.

Privacy Rights

The college adheres to all federal and state laws and rules pertaining to the privacy rights of students. Grades will not be posted nor will a student's grades be discussed with anyone other than the student, unless directed to do so by a college official or administrator or if given written permission by the student. Due to recent privacy laws, I cannot give out grade information over the telephone.

Incomplete

Incomplete will be given only when a student, who has been successfully completing the class, has an unavoidable emergency that is beyond the student's control at the end of a semester that prevents that student from completing the course.

Academic Integrity

Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated and may result in an "FF" for the course as well as disciplinary action under the Code of Student Conduct. A student will be referred to an Academic Integrity Seminar. There will be a charge for this two-hour seminar, and attendance is required (see Student Handbook). Failure to attend the Academic Seminar may result in the assignment of a final course grade of "FF," denoting course failure due to a violation of the college's Academic Integrity policy.

CF Student Assistance Program

The CF Student Assistance Program (SAP) is a confidential resource for assisting students who may have personal problems which could affect their school, work, or home lives. SAP provides early intervention and professional assessment and counseling to best meet the needs of the student. Services are free to all active CF students. The SAP is managed by BAY CARE LIFE MANAGEMENT, a health management organization. A student may call a toll free helpline during regular business hours Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. For crisis situations after hours, on weekends, or holidays a student may call the same number and the therapist on duty will be paged and will promptly respond to the call. For services a student may call the following toll free number: 1-800-878-5470.

Developmental Education Courses

Florida law requires that students enrolling in the same developmental education course more than twice pay 100% of the full cost of instruction. Students registered in developmental education courses who receive N grades must repeat the same course and complete it with a grade of C or better before they can register for other courses that require the successful completion of the developmental course as a requirement.

Extended Emergency Closure

For emergency campus closing (natural disasters, etc.) call 352-291-4499 or 800-831-9244 or check our website www.cf.edu.

Internet Access

All assignments and assessments must be taken/completed on Canvas during the posted time frame (no exceptions). Once you begin a quiz/exam, the allotted time for the exam will begin. You will not be permitted to “save” your progress to resume later. This means that you should not begin/start these assessments until you are prepared to complete the entire quiz or exam. All course materials will be available on Canvas, and it is the student’s responsibility to ensure sufficient internet access to obtain the course materials and complete course assignments. Lack of internet access and/or individual computer problems WILL NOT be considered valid excuses. Late assignments will NOT be accepted. Keep this in mind and plan ahead. Internet connections can go out at the last minute and this will NOT be a valid excuse for missed assignments and/or assessments.

Right to Change Syllabus

If necessary, some components of this syllabus (such as test dates, chapters/topics covered, etc.) may change; however, any such changes will be announced and/or posted on Canvas. The student is responsible for any such announced changes.
