INTRODUCTION TO THE HUMANITIES

Course Description/Objectives

This course is designed to stimulate in students a curiosity and enthusiasm for the arts while developing observation and listening skills. With discussions of historical periods and major artists' lives, styles, and representative works, the instructor hopes this course will heighten the students' awareness of, and appreciation for, the visual arts, literature, and music.

Materials

Students should purchase the fifth edition of Dr. Sarah Satterfield's Introduction to the Humanities: An Outline Guide. The workbook supplement may be purchased in the bookstore, using the bookstore website/app, or directly through the Kendall Hunt website (<https://he.kendallhunt.com/satterfield-humanities>). The workbook supplement is required for the class. Notes will be taken directly in the workbook based on class lectures. The workbook (but no other outside resources) may be used on tests.

Attendance Policy

Students are highly encouraged to attend class as test material comes from class lectures. Attendance will be taken each class session but will not be part of the final grade. Students who miss class can catch up by viewing recorded PowerPoints posted under the "Files" tab on Canvas and using these to fill in their workbooks.

Tardiness

Class begins promptly each day. As it distracts both the instructor and other students, tardiness will not be tolerated.

Classroom Decorum

Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Disruptive students will be asked to leave the classroom. Continuous disruptive behavior will result in withdrawal from the course and disciplinary action under the Code of Student Conduct (see Student Handbook).

Course Requirements

Students are expected to attend class and prepare for the oral presentation (optional), tests, and final.

Academic Honesty

Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated and may result in an "FF" in the course as well as disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct. A student will be referred to the Academic Integrity Seminar for cheating. This two-hour seminar costs $40 (see Student Handbook). Failure to attend this seminar may result in the assignment of a final grade of "FF," denoting course failure due to violation of the college's Academic Integrity policy.

Grading Policy

For the purpose of grade determination, tests given during the semester (4) and the final are each worth 50 points. The optional oral presentation (1) is also worth 50 points.

Grading Scale

90-100	A
87-89	B+
80-86	B
77-79	C+
70-76	C
60-69	D
0-59	F

Test Format

Test questions will be in multiple-choice format. Test questions will come from the workbook, which students will fill in based off class lectures. All grades will be posted to the Canvas gradebook.

Make-Up Policy

No make-up tests and no extensions will be given. Instead the lowest test will be dropped. If tests 1-4 are completed, the final test is optional. To drop a score, however, all 5 tests (1-4 plus the final) must be completed.

Disability Services for Students with Disabilities

To ensure students have equal access to educational opportunities here at the College of Central Florida, students with medical, sensory, physical, psychological, and/or cognitive disability are encouraged to register with the Office of Disability Services and request an application. If eligible, Disability Services will help facilitate approved accommodations for you. Please do this as soon as possible to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion for your academic success. The Office of Disability Services is located in Building 5-204, on the Ocala Campus. - Last day to add: October 11

- Last day to drop (refund): October 12
- Last day to withdraw with a “W” (no refund): November 10

Students should be aware that 1) withdrawals do not count in the CF GPA but may not be viewed favorably at the university level or for purposes of financial aid, 2) a withdrawal counts as an attempt under the forgiveness/withdrawal policy and the course repeat policy, 3) there are increased costs to take the course on the third attempt, and 4) there may be a reason a withdrawal request is denied (please see the College’s withdrawal policy).

Emergency Information

For emergency campus closings (natural disasters, etc.) call (352) 291-4499, 1-800-831-9244, or check our website (www.cf.edu (Links to an external site.))

Learning Outcomes/Expectations

Upon completion of the semester it is hoped that the student will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the values and expressions of other cultures that arise from human experience; recognize complex historical, cultural, economic, and political forces that create societies as well as how these forces shape personal identity; understand the local and global connections among power, knowledge, gender, and class; and understand the local and global connections among self-direction, cooperation, respect, responsibility, integrity, and social success. Each of the above areas will be evaluated by exam.

CF Early Support Program

The College of Central Florida is committed to helping you succeed and achieve your academic, personal, and career goals. There are a wide range of resources and support services available to you. When students are connected early to resources and support systems on campus, they are more likely to stay in classes, perform better in those classes, and complete their path more quickly. One example is through an Early Support Program, where you may receive an email indicating your professor or advisor is reaching out directly to help connect you to support services. This may include connecting you to tutoring, financial support, psychological support services, and disability services just to name a few. Be aware, you can also reach out to these services on your own as well. Additionally, we offer disability services, a testing center, and many other resources which are all available to you. Please refer to the College Resources, Dates, and Policies document in your Canvas course to learn more about these supports.
