VI. Additional Course Description Information

As a registered student in this class, you assume the responsibility for conducting yourself in a manner that contributes positively to CF's learning community as described in the Student Code of Conduct. This class may require participation in discussion to meet course-learning outcomes. We are a class comprised of individuals. As such, there will be multiple opinions expressed throughout the semester that you may not personally agree with or even understand - as may be expected. My role as an instructor is to facilitate freedom of expression that is relevant to the course, credible, open and respectful without the promotion or endorsement of a single viewpoint. Conversations informed by diverse viewpoints contribute to critical thinking and higher-level learning. Even if you don't agree, listening to different points of view may give you further insight into your own perspectives. No lesson is intended to espouse, promote, advance, inculcate, compel a particular feeling, perception, viewpoint, or belief in a concept. Concepts as presented are not endorsed by the instructor but are presented as part of the larger course of instruction. Should a student feel uncomfortable with how course content is presented or discussed, please contact the instructor for further conversation.

Brief statement of teaching philosophy and/or expectations:

Teaching philosophy and expectations: I have three goals as an instructor. I want to inform, inspire, and promote interaction. To accomplish these goals I rely on scholarship, discussion, humor, entertainment, lecture, and an artistic whimsy that is uniquely universal. I expect students to enjoy my class. I challenge students to delve deeper than their personal assumptions about what makes people who they are. Science is our magnifying glass in this class.

Pre/Corequisites: This course is open to students who have no prep need by taking REA002C or REA0017. This course is open to students who have no prep needs in English/Writing or who have satisfied their prep need by taking ENC0010C or ENC0025.

This list offers you a consistent way to see how CF's global learning outcomes are assessed in each class. This is for information purposes only and does not change the grading system used in this class. Only those learning outcomes relevant to this course are included below.

Learning Outcomes & How Measured: See chart above

IX. Assessment

Students can earn points by completing quizzes, tests, a group project, and by participating in class discussions both face to face and online.

Attendance: You are required to attend all class meetings. Attendance is required for all tests and there will be only one make-up test. Non-attendance does not constitute withdrawal from this course. It is your responsibility to complete the withdrawal forms by the appropriate date.

For the complete grading scale, see the current CF catalog.

Make-up policy No make-up work will be given unless there is an emergency or if I have given you prior approval. In such an event, you must notify me before the exam or item is due unless the emergency prohibits it. You might be asked to bring proof of the emergency. The make-up exam must be taken during the final week of the course or when made available by the instructor. While you do not need to disclose personal details, let me know as soon as possible if something is preventing you from participating online or completing work.

X. Proctoring

This course requires proctored assessment(s). Assessments are proctored online through Honorlock or at a CF Testing location. If you plan to take a proctored exam online, you will be required to have a computer with Google Chrome, webcam and microphone, as student identity must be verified on proctored quizzes and tests.

XI. Course Schedule/Outline

Tentative class schedule

Technology: This is a hybrid class. We meet face to face on Mondays and Wednesdays and the remainder of the lessons, assignments, and assessments are completed online using CANVAS. Students are expected to be comfortable with CANVAS and MS office. Technological difficulties do not count as a reasonable excuse for inactivity, missing, or incomplete work.

Due to unforeseen happenings, it may be necessary for the course assignment schedule to be altered. I will always strive to be fair about any changes.

XII. College Policies

The College of Central Florida is committed to helping you succeed and achieve your academic, personal and career goals. There are a wide range of resources and support services available to you. When you connect to resources and support systems on campus early, you are much more likely to be successful in your classes and complete your path more quickly. One example is through an Early Support Program, where you may receive an email indicating your professor or advisor is reaching out directly to help connect you to support services. This may include connecting you to tutoring, financial support, psychological support services, and disability services just to name a few. Be aware, you can also reach out to these services on your own as well. Additionally, we offer free tutoring, disability services, a testing center, and many other resources which are all available to you. Please refer to the College Resources, Dates, and Policies document in your Canvas course to learn more about these supports and policies.

XII. Equity Statement

College of Central Florida offers equal access and opportunity in employment, admissions and educational activities. The college will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, religion, gender, pregnancy, age, marital status, national origin, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status or disability status in its employment practices or in the admission and treatment of students. Recognizing that sexual harassment constitutes discrimination on the basis of gender and violates this policy statement, the college will not tolerate such conduct. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies: Dr. Mary Ann Begley, Director of Compliance and Planning – Title IX Coordinator, Ocala Campus, Building 3, Room 117H, 3001 S.W. College Road, 352-291-4410, or Equity@cf.edu.
