INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS

- A student may withdraw from any course without academic penalty by the midpoint in the semester. FAC 6A-14.0301 1(a). (Check the appropriate dates in the college calendar for withdrawal deadlines.) A withdrawal form must be completed and submitted before or on the withdrawal deadline published by the college. Courses with alternate starting dates may have different withdrawal dates published in the course syllabus or at the Enrollment Services Centers.
- A student may have only three attempts per course including the original grade, repeat grades, and withdrawals at any point in the semester. Therefore, a student will be permitted a maximum of two withdrawals per course. Upon the third attempt, the student will not be permitted to withdraw and will receive a grade for that course. F.S. 1009.28, F.S. 1009.285 and FAC 6A-14.0301 1(b).
- A student who is auditing a course may withdraw at any time.
- Students need to understand the potential impact that withdrawing from courses may have on the computation of their grade point average when they transfer to other institutions or limited access programs. FAC 6A-14.0301 2(c).
- Students need to consider the impact withdrawing will have on their specific financial aid award. Some types of financial aid, including but not limited to Bright Future Scholarships, may require a student to pay money back to the college and/or federal government once the withdrawal has been processed. FAC 6A-14.0301 2(c) and S.B. 1696.
- CF instructors may not initiate a request to withdraw a student from their class.

NOTE

- Withdrawal(s) may be reversed and a grade issued for a course as a disciplinary action resulting from breaching the college's Academic Integrity and Honor Code.
- High School Dual Enrollment students MUST complete the High School Dual Enrollment Withdrawal Form being sure to obtain the high school guidance counselor's or home school parent's signature.
