CODE OF THE ROAD

Attending an Event for the College of Central Florida

Congratulations! You've been chosen to travel and represent CF because you are a student leader who is committed to making a positive difference for your club/organization. We encourage you to take this opportunity for the best professional and personal experience possible. Take time to have fun and network with others. Representing CF at an off-campus event is a privilege. Because you are a formal representative of CF, there are certain rights and responsibilities that come with this opportunity. The CODE OF THE ROAD is to be used before, during and after any trip you take on behalf of CF.

Provide family members with all pertinent travel information, including conference location, departure/arrival times, and hotel accommodations. You should provide your advisor or instructor with emergency contact information, insurance information and any information we might need to know about serious medical conditions. If you are unable to attend the event, for any reason other than a medical/family emergency, you will be required to reimburse CF for any expenses that were incurred on your behalf.

Rights and Responsibilities

You have the...

Right to become better acquainted with members of your own college

Right to "network" with other event participants

Right to enjoy the personal and professional opportunities offered at the off-campus event

Right to have the respect of peers and advisors

Right to seek and secure support of peers and advisors

Right to expect advisors to adhere to the same responsibilities expected of students

Right to have good, clean fun!

Responsibility to respect others, including hotel roommates, hotel staff and property (Stealing/destruction of hotel property will NOT be tolerated!)

Responsibility to attend, on time, the workshops, seminars, etc., available at the event

Responsibility to wear appropriate attire for each activity as adopted/suggested by the event sponsor

Responsibility to follow college, hotel, state and federal regulations/laws

Responsibility to stay onsite during the event (unless otherwise advised)

Responsibility to reside/sleep in hotel accommodations assigned to you

Responsibility to take reasonable precautions to ensure safety of self and others

Responsibility to refrain from tobacco use while traveling as stated in college policy.

Responsibility to abstain from possession and/or consumption of any type of intoxicants between event departure and return times, and to remove yourself from the company of anyone indulging in intoxicants.

Consequences

Responsibilities listed above, if violated, may result in disciplinary procedures including (but not limited to) immediate dismissal from the event at your own expense.

CODE OF THE ROAD COMMITMENT CONTRACT

I, _____, do hereby agree to adhere to the rights and responsibilities as outlined in the CODE OF THE ROAD. I understand that violation of aforementioned responsibilities could result in dismissal from the event, in addition to any consequences set forth by my advisor and home institution.
