

Residency Declaration

1. Go to: www.CF.edu.
2. Click on the MyCF button (on the top right-hand corner).
3. Type your CF ID number and password and click Login.
4. If you do not know your password, contact IT at 352-854-2322, ext. 1378.
5. Once you have logged in, click the red tab that says Admissions Status.
6. Under Admissions Forms, click on the affidavit that applies to you - Florida Residency Declaration or Non-Florida Residency Declaration. Read instructions for further information.
7. Once you get to the third section (dependency types), read the classification categories and choose the category that applies to you. Click next page and continue filling out the information according to the instructions.
8. In section five, select only two documents from the list. Be sure to enter document information from the claimant. Make sure the documents are at least 12 months old, from the first day of class, as proof that the claimant has been a Florida resident for at least one year prior to the start of classes.
9. If you are claiming Florida resident status, please submit copies of your selected documents using one of the following methods:
 - Upload to MyCF by clicking the residency tab located under Admissions status,
 - Bring copies to the Admissions office at your campus, or
 - Email to residency@cf.edu. Email must include student's name and CF ID number.
10. On the last page, sign affidavit with student name and claimant name, review your work, and verify your email address. Then click submit.
11. Contact residency@cf.edu, 352-854-2322, ext.1808 or 1297, or stop by your local campus if you have any questions or concerns regarding residency.
