Siqueira came to CF after three seasons at Northwest College, a National Junior College Athletic Association member school in Powell, Wyoming. She holds a master’s degree in college teaching and a bachelor’s degree in physical education from the University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota.

A native of Brazil, Siqueira signed in 2000 with Western Nebraska Community College, leading the team to consecutive top-four national finishes and earning All-Region and Academic All-American honors. She then transferred to the University of Mary, where she earned All-American honors and led the program to its first national Top 10 ranking in school history.

Siqueira began her coaching career at the College of the Southwest in Hobbs, New Mexico, before taking the position at Northwest College. She led the Trappers to a 90-38 record in her tenure with the program, including a regional championship and an NJCAA national tournament berth in the fall of 2008. The same year, Siqueira earned a Thirty Under 30 Award from the American Volleyball Coaches Association, one of two coaches from two-year programs to earn the distinction.

Paulo Marion

ASSISTANT VOLLEYBALL COACH

Paulo Marion enters his second year as assistant coach for the College of Central Florida women’s volleyball program. He previously served as a student assistant.

This past season, Marion helped the CF Volleyball team clinch its fourth-straight Mid-Florida Conference title. He helped lead the Lady Patriots to victory over NJCAA No. 1 Tyler and No. 3 Western Nebraska on the same day and a NJCAA No. 5 ranking during the season.

A native of Catanduva, Brazil, Marion enjoyed a prestigious 15-year professional career in South America, including a stint in Brazil’s elite Superliga.

Flavia Siqueira enters her fifth season as the head women’s volleyball coach at the College of Central Florida with an astounding 133-39 record. Siqueira has guided the Lady Patriots since the program’s inception in 2011. Since then, she has led CF to four consecutive Mid-Florida Conference titles, a FCSAA State Championship and two runner-up finishes. She has also coached the Lady Patriots to a NJCAA Top 10 finish three of the four seasons.

This past season, Siqueira led her team to victory versus NJCAA No. 1 Tyler and No. 3 Western Nebraska on the same day and saw her team rank as high as No. 5 in the nation, the highest national ranking in program history. She racked up her fourth-straight Mid-Florida Conference title, as well as fourth-straight Mid-Florida Conference Coach of the Year award. Siqueira developed and coached the program’s third NJCAA All-American, Julymar Otero, who led the state and nation in kills. Otero also earned state and conference player of the year honors. As a team, Siqueira led the Lady Patriots to FCSAA Top 5 finishes in kills and assists.
