

An Evening with Jim White

Thursday, March 14

Film 5-6:30 p.m. | Performance 7-8 p.m.

Building 8, Room 110 | CF Ocala Campus

The CF Humanities and Social Sciences Department presents an evening with singer-songwriter, raconteur, visual artist and Pushcart Prize-winning author Jim White.

From 5-6:30 p.m. we will screen the documentary "Searching for the Wrong-Eyed Jesus," in which White guides us into the dark recesses of the hidden heart of the South. In the jook joints, prisons, churches, dirt roads and swamps of Florida, and other parts of the Southeast, White roots out musicians, storytellers and sermonizers while looking for the key to the spiritual currents unique to this region.
