ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Education is a continuous process that enables learners to experience ideas and to express themselves freely, creatively, and responsibly in a healthy and caring environment that offers a variety of options and opportunities for active participation in the learning process.

To this end, a CF librarian shall strive to, among other things,:

- respect students and recognize and accept their uniqueness;
- respond to students' needs;
- empower individuals with responsibility for lifelong self-direction; and
- establish high standards for demonstration of learning in pursuit of goals.

The following are categories of responsibility in which a librarian carries out the role enunciated above:

Responsibility Definitions:***

Research and Instructional Services

Responsibility for analyzing students' information needs shall include:

- providing instruction in the use of information sources;
- determining the most relevant sources regardless of formats;
- creating instructional materials; and
- providing CF students with course- and assignment-specific instruction on effective use of the library's electronic and print resources.

Collection Development/Maintenance

Responsibility for collection development and maintenance shall include:

- examining reviews of potential sources in professional journals;
- soliciting faculty input;
- selecting materials appropriate for the support of CF's curriculum and programs; and
- donating original cataloging records to the shared nationwide bibliographic database.

*A more detailed list of the responsibility categories will be maintained by the Chief Academic Officer.
